Commissioner Martin:

I do not have children, but I don't watch the violent TV programs just because of the lingering thoughts it illicit. It also becomes a catalyst for vengful thoughts in situations that occur to me. I refuse to be captured by violence and then be motivated by it.

I am an adult but I can tell you that if I watch a violent TV program especially before going to bed I find myself thinking about the scenes when I wake up the next morning.

I have banned many TV shows from my viewing list just because of their violent nature.

Sincerely,

Rebecca Schutzenhoffer

Subject: Major Network Addresses, phone numbers and web addresses

We must act now! We want the "Poison" of the Secular TV & Radio airwaves to Clean-up Their Acts!

Here's where to contact the Major Networks to let them know on How we feel about the "Filth" that is currently on Secular TV & Radio of Today. Our Families and their Kids, Grandkids, Nephews, Nieces, etc are offended by Sex, Violence, Profanity, and Blasphemy (taking God's name in vain that is) that is very horrible! Our families are at stake. We must tell other ministries, their families, etc. to contact the following networks to tell them that we are fed up with the filth that's on Prime-Time TV. We want Good-Clean, Wholesome Family Programming back (TV G rated) for the sake of the families with their young ones to enjoy.

I would like to go on the record for requesting and recommending that violence such as mayhem, or brutal acts; profanity, and the gay life style be stricken from the public media and to consider all these realms as to be "child safe" in content. Additionally, I feel like it also holds true to the adult scene as well, that one should be able to sit down and enjoy the media without being offended in it's content. If anyone wants to view violence, listen to profanity, or be assaulted with the open display of the gay life style they can resort to the worldly clubs or such; but a decent American should not have to be assaulted with such.

This message is to voice my opinion re: violence on television. Too many programs containing violent and sexual explicit content are bombarding our young people. The results are seen on every news program across the country as millions of Americans prepare to go off to work. Every day violence performed by kids makes the news. Surely this should be a wake up call that there is TOO MUCH violence on our airwaves. The violence that is perpetuated is across the board. Many of violence is pitting kids against kids and murder is rampant. Kids against their parents and abuse is rampant. Parents committing crimes against their kids. All of these have been demonstrated on TV as well as how to get away with it. We need for you to get involved, and create rules that will take us to creative entertainment, with far fewer episodes of violence and fewer sexual themes and scenes. We appreciate your attention to the voice of American families.

Violence on Television has been out of hand for some years now, and something needs to be done about it. I believe our children would have been more affected by it had we not as parents during their teen years limited it, but now it is my grandchildren who would be over exposed to even more if their parents did not put strict controrls over this coming into their homes. It has become so much worse over the last two decades that I can hardly stand to watch many programs without changing channels. I thought I would like some programs when they first aired, but later was literally turned off and sickened by the violence and scenes such as on CSI-Crime Scene Investigation, and many movies and other programs on the supposed to be "family friendly" networks. I seldom watch 3 to 5 hours of TV a week anymore except my favorite news channel due to the violence, not to mention language and "adult content". It should not be this way, that parents or individuals should have to search for something decent that is not only violent, but so seemingly done in a way as if it is the norm to be that way. No wonder it is affecting so many young people and children by having both affects of causing fear and/or indifference to violence. It is enought to unnerve even the strongest of adults who have a code of decency in their lives!
